

School of Communications Career Fair – Howard University

October 16 - 18, 2013

Join the School of Communications for the Annual Communications Career Fair. Attend panel discussions and workshops and interview for internships and full-time jobs.

The Howard University Job Fair was established 36 years ago to serve as a forum for qualified applicants in communications to network and interview with representatives from nationally recognized communications organizations and graduate schools to help bring parity within the workforce.

Attendees of the Job Fair will consist of talented freshmen, sophomores, juniors, seniors and graduate students from colleges and universities across the country as well as recent graduates and working professionals. You should have experience and education in one of the following fields: Advertising (agency/ad sales); Public Relations; TV & Film Production; Radio Production; Telecommunications Management; Sales; Organizational Communications, News Editorial, On-line Reporting; Finance and Accounting. Bring plenty of resumes (about 30 copies), portfolios and dress for success!

There is no charge to attend the fair. Registration is preferred, but not mandatory to attend the event.
